AWS USER GROUP KOCHI

We are a group of passionate Amazon Web Services Developers, Solution Architects, DevOps Engineers, Users, Evangelists, & Partners who meet to share knowledge, share best practices, and discuss AWS technology services and product announcements. Our motto is community-based learning and sharing. We conduct meetups and learning workshops in Kochi. We also partner with Educational Institutions and other professional communities to organise Hackathons and community events.

All skills levels, including students who would like to learn about AWS are welcome to help accomplish our motto of learning, sharing and networking.

Let's join hands to empower this tech community to make it bigger and better!
